A naval action within a few days is recircles. The Associated Press learns that Admiral Rojestvensky and Rear Admiral Nebogatoff joined forces May 10th. There is reason to believe the united fleet will proceed northward immediately. No delay was necessary for the purpose of coaling or cleaning Nebogatoff's ships, as his division made a stop for this purpose on entering the Straits of Malacca, sion of the Southern Baptist Convention the most notable meetings in the history of the body. The attendance has been very large, the interest manifested most gratifying and the condition of the great work of the denomination as set forth in the reports, was never more encouarging

The last day was accompanied by the customary scenes attending the winding up of the business and the departure of the delegates. A mass of important business was transacted. Among other things the convention refused to change its name and refused courteously but firmly to accede to the wishes of the Landmark brethren. Dr. Hatcher presented the report upon the latter measure and it was unanimously adopted.

To-night the delegates are leaving. Many of them will stop in St. Louis at the conference of the Baptists of America to be held there.

The Sunday Services

The Sunday Services.

Yesterday was the great day. Some one hundred of the delegates and visitors preached in the pulpits of the city to large and deeply interested congregations. The meeting in the afternoon at the huge convention hall drew an audience estimated at from ten to fourteen thousand. All seemed deeply interested in the exercises. Rev. Dr. W. E. Hatcher, of Virginia, made a memorial address on Rev. Dr. C. C. Meador, of Washington; Dr. J. F. Love, of Arkansas. spoke on ex-Governor James P. Eagle, and Rev. Dr. A. J. S. Thomas, of South Carolina, spoke on Colonel James A. Hoyt, of Greenville, S. C. These memorial addresses were tender and effective and seemed to touch the people deeply.

Rev. Dr. A. C. Dixon, of Boston, an old "Tarheel," delivered a sermon which was in the best vein of that able preacher, and seemed to make a profound impression on the vast congregation. The Sunday Services. Charges High Treason Against and seemed to make a profound impression on the vast congregation.

Among the Virginia preachers who occupied pulpits yesterday were Rev. Drs. R. J. Willingham, E. E. Bomar, J. W. McDaniel, W. T. Derieux, M. Ashby Jones, and J. William Jones, of Richmond, and M. L. Wood, of Staunton. Chaplain Jones preached, by special invitation, to the Confederate veterans, and had a packed house of decily attentive hearers and at the close of the service the veterans crowded around the preacher the veterans crowded around the preacher and promised to be followers of Lee and Jackson, even as they, also, were of "The Captain of Their Salvation."

Sessions Yesterday.

This morning there was some discussion on the report of the committee on the resolutions of Judge George Hillycr, of Georgia, on changing the name and constitution of the convention so as to embrace instead of simply the South, the whole of America. The committee reported against the change and after an amendment to change the phraseology of ball," Mrs. Slaight majestically marched on the diamond and took up a position between the pitcher's box and the home base. The pitcher attempted to curve the ball around her, but failing in this another battery was placed a little to one side. The pitchers began throwing the ball alternately, while Mrs. Slaight skipped from one line of fire to the other, apparently trying to get the American flag hit with a pitched ball. The game was unsatisfactory with a duct of batterles, and finally the crowd swarmed on the field. Good-naturedly surrounding the flag-enshrouded woman, the spectators forced her off the field, flag and all. The game then proceeded unmolested.

whole of America. The committee reported against the change and after an amendment to change the phraseology of the report, it was adopted by the unanimous vote of the convention.

The Presbyterian General Assembly sent a communication to the convention asking that delegates be sent to a conference of the evangelical denominations on Sabbath observance. The request was unanimously granted.

On motion of Rev. Dr. W. W. Landrum the convention expressed its gratification that the Woman's Missionary Society had adopted the training scaool and home in Louisville, and strongly commended this institution to the churches. The committee on nominations made its report, which was adopted, making very few changes in the present composition of the boards.

The interests of home missions now came before the convention under the direction of Dr. Gray, corresponding secretary of the Home Mission Board, and reports were read in the following order: "Frontier Work," by Rev. J. F. Love, of Arkansas; "Mountain Schools and Work," by Dr. D. W. Key, of South Carolina, Rev. D. I. Lipsey, of Mississippi, read the report on "Cuba and New Fields." Rev. Dr. J. R. Gambrell, of Texas, read the report in "Administration and Outhork." mountain district; Rev. C. D. Daniel, superintendent of Cuban missions; Dr. J. B. Gambrell, of Texas, and others. Dr. Love, of Arkansas, spoke eloquently on Frontier Missions, bringing out the rapidity with which numbers and wealth are pouring into the States west of the Mississippi and the importance of acting now. He insisted that now is the time to let the church go into the new towns ahead of the courthouse or the school houses. Dr. J. M. Carroll, of Texas, made the point that to sustain these mission points pays handsomely in the increased contributions to all of the enterprises of the convention. Rev. A. E. Brown spoke strongly and well of the work in the mountain regions.

Rev. Dr. Daniel, superintendent, of mission work in Cuba, made very interesting statements in reference to the encouraging work in "The Gem of the Antilles," and an earnest appeal for inore men to gather in the ripe harvest. Rev. Dr. Gambrell made a stirring speech on the importance of training the Baptist hosts who are now, he insisted, not a disciplined army prepared to push forward in the battle, but "A gang, a drove, over three million weakt."

Considerable enthusiasm was mani-

weak."

Considerable enthusiasm was manifested, and the convention piedged two hundred and fifty thousand dollars for home missions the coming year.

Afternoon Meeting.

The house was packed this afternoon, and after some other items were transacted, the question of eyar, gelism was presented by Dr. A. J. S. Thomas, of South Carolina. Rev. Dr. L. G. Broushton, of Atlanta, made one of his characteristic and earnest speeches in favor of more evangelism in the churches. The report, which was adopted, refers the whole matter to a committee to report, next year. The chair announced as the next year. The chair announced as the Afternoon Meeting.

Mr. Randolph Williams appeared bethe Street Committee vesterday and presented a petition asking the right to extend the Seaboard Air bine yards in the

the committee had a matter sometime

In the petition presented yesterday afternoon by Mr. Williams to the committee the question of cutting down the embankment is eliminated and only the request to extend the yards is incorporated. The committee attended to much routine work. The following members were present: Messrs. Mills, Burton, Adams, Morton, Sponse, Garber. Wood, Peters, Minor, Whittet, McCaw and Rennolds.
